Where the Rubber Meets the Road: Promoting Active Transport in Rural Areas

Tuesday April 24, 2012
12:30 PM to 1:45 PM Pacific

Welcome and thank you for joining our Web Forum!

If you have technical difficulties call 1-866-229-3239 for assistance
Use the Q&A function to submit questions or any technical issues
Participate in the polls by selecting your answer and clicking submit Complete the Post-Web Forum online evaluation. We need your feedback!
The Recording and Slides will be available at www.Dialogue4Health.org
Q&A Feature

Please submit questions via the Q&A Feature

Please send your questions to All Panelists
Tracy Hadden Loh
Director
National Transportation Enhancements Clearinghouse Manager
Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

Tracy is a Ph.D. Candidate in city and regional planning at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and a recipient of a Science to Achieve Results (STAR) fellowship from the Environmental Protection Agency. Tracy was born and raised in Washington, DC, where she still resides, and rides a bicycle to work every day. Tracy is the author of Active Transportation Beyond Urban Centers: Walking and Bicycling in Small Towns and Rural America.

Website:  www.railstotrails.org
Mark Duncan
President
Starkville in Motion

Mark has lived in Starkville, Mississippi for the past 6 years and actively involved in making the community a better place from the beginning. Duncan currently serves as President of Starkville in Motion; a local grass-roots effort to improve mobility within Starkville beyond vehicular transportation. Duncan is employed by the Stennis Institute of Government and Community Development at Mississippi State University.

Website: http://starkvilleinmotion.org
Eric Oberg
Manager
Trail Development
Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

Eric is responsible for the delivery of all levels of trail development technical assistance in 6 Midwest States, including managing technical assistance contracts, products and services. He has many years of experience in trail construction, including surveying, layout & design and both hand and machine based construction methods. He has been extensively involved in planning, design and evaluation of Rail-with-Trail projects.

Website: www.railstotrails.org
Jennifer Rice
Director
Community Strategies
Humboldt Area Foundation

Jen Rice is the Director of Community Strategies for the Humboldt Area Foundation in the rugged region of far northwestern California, sometimes known as Baja Oregon. Previously, Jen spent 15 years working for the nonprofit Redwood Community Action Agency on sustainable community development policy, planning and construction, with focus on active transportation, health impacts of land use and transportation policy and transportation equity. She co-founded the Humboldt Partnership for Active Living, HumPAL.

Website: www.hafoundation.org
Ronald Cossman, PhD
Associate Research Professor, Research Associate
Social Science Research Center
Mississippi State University

Principal Investigator
Northeast Mississippi Area Health Education Center

Ron is a health geographer and demographer. He has also been a member of Starkville in Motion (SIM) since its' inception 8 years ago. He has been associated with writing $1.7 million in health grants on behalf of the City, and continues to advocate for bike lanes, bike paths and a safer built environment for the Safe Routes to Schools program.

Websites:  www.ssrc.msstate.edu http://nemsahec.msstate.edu
Thank you to our Web Forum Sponsors:

Active Living Research and the Public Health Institute