

Join the Movement

PreventObesity.net is an online national network of people and organizations who are taking action to reverse childhood obesity.

PreventObesity.net supports the childhood obesity movement by helping Leaders across the country connect to coordinate advocacy efforts to provide a healthier future for America's children. PreventObesity.net also connects Leaders with more than 100,000 Supporters to support policy and environmental changes to reduce obesity.

A project of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, PreventObesity.net also offers free tools, services and support to those working on this vital issue in communities nationwide.

Our tools and services

Take the Lead. Empower PreventObesity.net advocates to take action through campaigns that promote policy and environmental changes in America's schools and neighborhoods.

Be In the Know. Stay informed with The Inside Track, a must-read weekly newsletter for anyone working on reducing childhood obesity.

Network Online. Connect with other advocates through the easy-to-use Map of the Movement, and download a widget to customize your own map and embed it on your website.

Navigate the Blogosphere. Spread your message to top bloggers in the movement. PreventObesity.net's in-depth blog analysis service will identify the key players on the issues that matter most to you.

Go Mobile. Engage the public through free text messaging services to get fast results on urgent issues.

Network and Learn Online. Reach out to fellow advocates through our free webinar hosting services to provide presentations in support of your research or campaigns. Or attend a webinar provided by PreventObesity.net and Leaders in the field.
